ABOUT THE PROPERTY

Located in the historic West Adams district, Center for Communities is a restored 1927 Neo-Classical landmark designed to inspire collaboration and connection. Once a grand bank, the venue now features a striking main hall, intimate conference rooms, a built-in projector screen and a 2,775-square-foot open-air courtyard, with an adjoining 3,478-square-foot parking lot. With its soaring ceilings, preserved period details, and seamless indoor-outdoor flow, this architectural gem offers a versatile and inspiring setting just 20 minutes from downtown Los Angeles and Hollywood.

Best used for: Receptions, Conferences, Workshops, Networking, Exhibitions, Private Events.
